Economics Fair

Fourth grade students at Line Elementary School hosted their annual economics fair on Nov. 17. Students have been learning and studying many disciplines associated with economics including: needs and wants; goods and services; supply and demand; budgeting, saving, spending and donating. Students created a business plan describing what they would like to sell prior to the event on Nov. 17. Earnings will be used to fund their playground project in science class where they have studied erosion and weathering and identified several spots on their playground in need of repair. Currently, they are researching ways to fix or slow the problem.

A Maine tradition

PFC Justin A. Gentry, of East Waterboro, got an 8-point buck weighing 155 pounds, while recently home on a 10-day leave from boot camp in the United States Marine Corps.

"I was looking forward to going hunting...and was excited to get my deer in my first day back out in the woods," said Gentry. It took him only a few hours.

According to Gentry's mother Michelle, hunting is a family tradition. Gentry's father, Aaron P. Gentry retired last year from the USCG and is a registered Maine Guide.

Justin graduated from Massabesic High School in 2015 and just graduated from boot camp in Parris Island, South Carolina on Nov. 18.

Library offers French Class for adults

BY CYNTHIA MATTHEWS

Did you study French in High School or college? Do you wish you had a chance to practice speaking it some more? That was the idea behind the French class for adults currently being offered at the Bonney Memorial Library in Cornish.

The instructor, retired French teacher Janet Carper, said, "The idea of doing a class for practice in spoken French has been with me for a while." Carper taught French at Sacopee Valley High School for 32 years. "When I was teaching at Sacopee, people used to ask me to do something like that [offer a conversation class], or to teach in adult ed. But then I didn't have time for it." So the idea of making it a fundraiser for the library seemed a natural thing. Carper's husband, Tom, is on the Library Board of Trustees, and when looking for fundraising ideas for the Library Expansion Project, Carper felt now was the time to do it!

"Our aim is to give you the pleasure of expressing yourself in a foreign language," states the flyer. The class meets on Tuesday evenings at 7 p.m. at the library, with a total of ten classes, and will be finishing up mid-December. The focus of the class is spoken French. "The levels of experience varied quite a bit, but things came together pretty well," reported Carper. "It is fun because the students enjoy speaking, and they even make jokes and ask each other friendly questions."

Topics and themes for the "lessons" have included introductions, family and friends, favorite activities, my life, cooking, the future, and holiday traditions.

Giving tree

Visitors walking into the lobby will be greeted by a unique Giving Tree fashioned by Secretary, Linda Davis, who transformed a wooden palette into a beautiful holiday tree to give the children an opportunity to learn about giving. Students have been invited to donate new clothes, books and toys to local children in need. The gender and item to be donated were placed on a tree ornament. School Counselor, Jackie Chaplin, sent a notice home saying that "If you are willing and able, we welcome you to select an ornament, purchase a gift, and bring the unwrapped gift (wrapping paper donations accepted) with the ornament back to school before Dec. 9.

If your family or a family you know could benefit from a little help this holiday season with buying gifts, call the school office and ask to speak with Mrs. Chaplin or Mrs. Drouin. Names will be kept confidential.

various tools and technology and to become better problem solvers. The students will be able to take the information they are learning in all subjects in the classroom and extend their knowledge. "The school has also applied for three different grants to help fund the tools and technology needed to make this space as varied and creative as possible," added Drouin.

The winter concert for grades one and two will be held on Dec. 6 at the Massabesic Middle School at 6:30 p.m.

From the principal

Principal, Ginnie Drouin announced that all of the standardized testing has been completed. "Our students and staff worked very hard during September and October and we are all very glad to be back to a normal routine."

Drouin reports that the staff is working hard to create the new MakerSpace Space in Room 10. Technology specialist, Charlie Cianciola, will be offering sessions for students before school, and during the school day. There are also plans for a parent/student session starting later in the winter months. The goal of the MakerSpace is to offer students the opportunity to be creative with

Book fair a success

The Lyman PTC recently sponsored a week-long Scholastic Book fair and raised $1,500. Members of the PTC voted to donate the proceeds to the "hard-working teachers" and the school library.

Congratulations to Mrs. Walsh's second grade class who won the Box Top collection. This is a contest when students save as many Box Tops for Education to benefit their school. An ice cream social is the prize. A variety of school-related items can be purchased with the box tops.

North Waterboro Pole is again aglow

Seasonal lights and music once again fill the air as the North Waterboro Pole, at 74 Mayfair Way in North Waterboro welcomes holiday visitors. A new feature this year is a 20-foot high Christmas tree. The schedule for times and days the displays will be open is on North Waterboro Pole's Facebook page. Visitors are advised to tune in to 88.1 FM North Pole radio "to listen in our yard or in your car!"

The North Waterboro Pole display was recently featured as one of "11 Christmas Lights Displays in Maine that are Pure Magic," on the "Only in Your State" website at www.onlyinyourstate.com/maine/11-christmas-light-displays-me/.

Hosts Jeff Walker and Julie Harrison announced that they will also have Toys for Tots boxes out for anyone that wants to bring a new unwrapped toy to help make someone's Christmas a little brighter this year. Toys can be for any young person, from tots to young adults, as that fund is the only local one that collects for those over 16.

Walker and Harrison alert visitors to, "Please feel free to take as many photos as you would like and we greatly appreciate you sharing them to our page as well. As we always say, please stay outside of the display it is not a walk through display; always look but please don't touch." They also ask visitors not to block neighbors' driveways or use their driveways to turn around. A special Toys for Tots event with special guests will take place Dec. 10, starting at 5:30 p.m.

The North Waterboro Pole light display at 74 Mayfair Way, North Waterboro, will hold a special Toys for Tots event on Dec. 10 at 5:30 p.m.

Deering Ridge ATV use ends

As of Dec. 1, the temporary ATV use of a section of Deering Ridge Road, has come to a close, and members of the Ossipee Mountain ATVers are removing ATV speed limit signs. The affected roadway extended from the top of Bennett Hill Road, where it meets Deering Ridge Road, to shortly before Deering Ridge meets Townhouse Road. This two-mile stretch was opened to legal ATV use in order for riders to be able to connect with a major trail, and it is now over for the season. The Club thinks the trial went very well, with no issues and a lot of gratitude heard by the club from many riders, both local and from out-of-state.

Club president Todd Abbott reported that the stretch of the road got a lot of use during the time it was legal. Town Administrator Gary Lamb said that he received only one complaint, from a resident of Hooper Hill, who complained that the ATV traffic "Disrupted the tranquility of the neighborhood." Waterboro Deputy Shawn Sanborn said that he received no complaints personally, and that only two complaints were received by the York County Sheriff's Office, neither one involving an ATV. One was for two dirt bikes operated on the shoulder at high speeds, and the other for a golf cart on the road. Lamb and Abbott said that work will continue during the winter toward creating an ordinance with possibilities of reinstating this use, and possibly expanding it next year.

Adult writing group

The Waterboro Public Library's Adult Writing Group is underway. New writers, as well as those who have been writing for some time, are invited to come and check out the group. Participants will listen to each other's work, critique it, share ideas and more. The group will meet the second Tuesday and fourth Thursday of December at the library, beginning at 6 p.m. For more information, call 247-3363 or email: librarian@waterborolibrary.org.

Fuel assistance program ready for winter

Waterboro General Assistance director Nancy Johnson reports that resources will be available for the Emergency Fuel Assistance Program this winter. The funds are available if low-income elders and those already on General Assistance need additional emergency help for purchasing fuel. This fund is for Waterboro residents only, and is funded through donations from local organizations, businesses and individuals. To donate, checks can be made out to the Town of Waterboro, Fuel Assistance Program. Any donations of cans and bottles left at the Waterboro Transfer Station are processed by JD's Redemption and that money is also sent to Johnson. The emergency funds are managed through the local Fuel Assistance program, and anyone seeking this help can call Nancy Johnson on the General Assistance line at 247-6166, ext. 114.

Receiving and giving at Christmas

Families who need help with Christmas gifts for their children can apply at the Toys for Tots Program at <http://saco-me.toysfortots.org/local-coordinator-sites/lco-sites/default.aspx>. Required documents are listed, and questions answered at 286-6533. Registration is done online and the deadline for applying is Dec. 8. Toys for Tots is the only local program that collects and gives to children, but also to teens and young people over 16.

Those who wish to donate to help others in need during the holidays may donate items to Toys for Tots or to the Salvation Army. Anyone wishing to donate to families in Waterboro can do so by bringing or sending a check to Nancy Johnson, General Assistance Director, at Waterboro Town Hall.

Johnson is also seeking volunteers to assist with the gift-giving program she oversees. Volunteers must sign up by Dec. 15; then they receive anonymous information about the needs of a particular family, for whom they shop, wrap and deliver gifts to Nancy for delivery to the family. The only expense for the volunteer is their time and shopping expertise! For more information, contact Johnson at 247-6166, ext. 114.

added a few and taken out a few," but the most popular "different" meat so far is kangaroo. "We used to get maybe one or two orders a week, and now we get one or two a night." Carpenter laughs as he says that people ask, "Just what is this meat you call kangaroo, anyway?" He explains that it is frozen kangaroo! "We get it shipped, frozen, on dry ice, from a distributor in California." The other non-traditional topping that is most popular at the moment is "The Roots," featuring carrots, parsnips and beets with garlic and ginger.

While Bryan is the full-time manager of the Waterboro restaurant, his parents, Norm and Tammy, also manage, part-time, outside of their full-time jobs.

OBITUARIES

John Michael Wallace Sr.

John Michael Wallace Sr., age 69, of Limington, U.S. Marine Corps veteran, died at home on Nov. 16, 2016 after a brief battle with cancer.

John Michael Wallace Sr.

John was born in Saco on June 18, 1947, a son of the late Kathleen Reynolds-Lund and Harold Wallace.

John was a devoted husband of 16 years to Bobbie Jo' Wallace. He was also the wonderful father of Pamela O'Shea of Quincy, Jenifer Gover of Rochester, and John Wallace Jr. of West Paris. He also has 12 grandchildren and 5 great grandchildren.

John was a great outdoorsman and loved hunting, fishing, and fox trapping with his wife. He was a carpenter by trade who loved working with his hands. John was an ordained minister and was proud to have officiated the marriages of his god daughter and his son. He was known for his willingness to help family and friends with any type of project they needed. Mostly, John enjoyed sitting at this kitchen table ready to greet all the company he got by looking out the window. He will be dearly missed by all that knew him.

Services will be private.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Chad E. Poitras Cremation and Funeral Service, Long Plains Road, Buxton. Online condolences can be submitted at www.mainefuneral.com.

John Henry Robinson III

John Henry Robinson III of Waterboro and South Portland, 35, passed away unexpectedly last Thursday evening. John is survived by his daughter Isabella, son Jacob and son Matthew, mother Christine Dalfonso, father John "Skip" Robinson and his wife Delores Robinson, brother Joseph Robinson and his wife Jennifer and their children Cody and Annie, sister Amanda Mendoza and her husband Rafael and their daughter Ruby as well as numerous aunts, uncles and cousins.

OBITUARIES

John was a kind and loving father as well as friend. He was a graduate of South Portland High School and attended Southern Maine and Central Maine Community College. He was hard working and enjoyed fishing and playing sports as well as spending time with his children. John played football, hockey and baseball. John loved watching the Patriots, Red Sox, Bruins and Celtics games with his family and friends. He loved to laugh as well as make others laugh. John was also a United States Marine. He will be extremely missed by his family and loved ones.

Services will be private.

Arrangements have been entrusted to Chad E. Poitras Cremation and Funeral Service, Long Plains Road, Buxton. Online condolences can be submitted at www.mainefuneral.com.

In lieu of flowers consider making a donation to the Operation Hope Fund through Project G.R.A.C.E. Checks, Money Orders or Gift Cards can be sent to: Project G.R.A.C.E., P.O. Box 6846, Scarborough, ME 04070-6846.

Dudley E. Donovan

Dudley E. Donovan, 66, of Ross Road in Kennebunk and formerly of Sanford, died at his home on Nov. 22, 2016.

Dudley E.
Donovan

Dudley was born in Sanford on Nov. 5, 1950, the son of John B. and Evelyn L. (Hilton) Donovan. He was raised in Kennebunk with his siblings and graduated from Kennebunk High School, Class of 1969. Dudley attended Farmington State Teachers College and through-out his working career, took classes at USM in Gorham.

Dudley was very personable and made friends easily. This was a great asset with his work as a clinical coordinator with Community Partners for the past 23 years. Dudley was well respected and always put the needs of his clients first. He was also an ordained minister through the Universal Life Church and volunteered for many years with patients who suffered from AIDS and those on hospice care. While working with his many clients, Dudley took them on special trips to Disney World, Toronto, Canada and to the beautiful Prince Edward Island.

Dudley was also involved in many business ventures. He was one of three partners that started Square Toe's in the early 80's and worked in management for the Kennebunk Inn and the infamous Howard Johnsons' on the Maine turnpike. For relaxation, Dudley enjoyed playing cards and was hard to beat when playing Pinochle. Of course, his repertoire of music included the greats, Ella Fitzgerald, Billie Holiday, Liza Minnelli and Barbara Streisand. You could always count on having a fun time when you were with Dudley. He was generous with his family and he will be dearly missed by his siblings and close friends.

He is survived by his siblings, John B. Donovan, IV of Kennebunk; Kim Donovan of Sanford; Daniel Donovan of Gorham; Timothy Donovan of Sanford and Susan Donovan of Lyman; several nieces and nephews; great nieces and great nephews; and cousins.

Dudley was predeceased by his parents, and his two brothers, Joel and Sean Donovan.

Family and friends are invited to visit on Saturday, Dec. 10, 2016 from 2-4 p.m. at the Autumn Green Funeral Home, 47 Oak St., in Alfred. Committal prayers and burial will be held later at Evergreen Cemetery in Alfred.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to Special Olympics Maine, 125 John Roberts Rd., Suite 5, So. Portland, ME 04106.

Massabesic's Project Graduation committee seeking volunteers

The next Project Graduation meeting is Dec. 13 at 6 p.m. in the Massabesic High School library and will be focused on organizing the next fundraiser, a Paint Nite. The group supports every student in every grade by raising money for a chem-free celebration after graduation.

The committee is looking for underclassmen to support the mission by helping with fundraising and setting up the event for the seniors.

This year they are looking for community members to support the group as overnight chaperones at the event. The surrounding community benefits from the Project Graduation efforts because these students are your local coffee shop workers, wait staff at your favorite eatery and grocery baggers at the local grocery store. Chem-free events and the safety of these students benefits everyone.

The committee needs some new "helpers" as the three co-chairs are retiring this year when their students graduate.

If you want to be included in the planning, email the committee at masshsprojgrad@gmail.com or visit their facebook page at www.facebook.com/MassHSPProjGrad.

FRENCH CLASS

Carper provides students with a list of sentences on the subject for the week, vocabulary and needed explanations of grammar and structures, and questions for the students to ask each other about the topic of the day. "At first each student prepared a presentation of their own on each subject," said Carper, "but now they prepare the questions and their own variations and answers." She added, "We usually do a 'relay race' La Course de Relais, where each student asks a question of another student who answers it and then asks another question to another student."

The suggested donation is $5 per class, and the students settle that with Cheryl Hevey, the Librarian. Promotion for the class has been all over towns, "everywhere that Cheryl could think of," said Carper, including the Davis Memorial Library in Limington. All proceeds from the class go to the Library Expansion Project.

Hevey reported that the Library Expansion Fund is coming closer to its goal, and has raised over three quarters of the money needed. Some of the renovations have already begun, like the removal of the old furnace. In 2017, the first work to be done will be to put in an ADA accessible bathroom and elevator in the east front corner (upper level) of the library. "We hope to start in February," said Hevey, "and we'll be meeting to discuss this next week." Demolition and construction will take place later in the winter, and in the spring, once the ground has thawed, excavation and construction for the addition will start. Certainly, things will be busy at the library in 2017!

It has not yet been decided if the conversation class will continue into the new year, but it is possible that it will be discussed in the last two classes. There has also been some interest in a beginning class. Carper is excited about either prospect! "I'd like to try to do it (the class) similarly to this one in that the emphasis will be on speaking."

"I do think that the students have gained more ease in speaking," said Carper, "even those who already had more experience."

If you are interested in learning more about the French Class for adults at the Bonney Memorial Library, Cheryl Hevey a call at the library, 625-8083 or email her at chevey@bonney.lib.me.us. For more information on the Library Expansion, visit their website, at www.bonney.lib.me.us/index.php/library-expansion

The Library will be participating in the Christmas in Cornish events, with a Reading of the Polar Express on Friday, Dec. 2 at 6 p.m., and the 5th Annual Cookie Fest on Saturday, Dec. 3 from 10 a.m.-2 p.m. The library is located at 36 Main Street, Cornish.
