On the weekend of Oct. 2-3, Morgan Illig from Shapleigh Scout Troop #320 completed his Eagle Scout project of repainting the Maintenance Building at the Williams Town Park in Shapleigh. He led and worked with his team of Scouts and volunteers to paint the building with a white primer and finish coat of brown. Candidates for Eagle Scout must complete a community project to demonstrate leadership as part of the requirements. What's the scoop on Cape Road?

BY CYNTHIA MATTHEWS

If you've driven on Route 117 in Limington you may have seen the sign for Scoop on the Cape. Maybe you've watched the progression, the clean up of the yard, and the building of the fence at Limington's new Ice Cream Shop!

Scoop on the Cape is the dream come true of owner Janet Quilty. "I always thought when I retired I would have an ice cream truck," said Quilty. "I love kids," she added. Well, neither Quilty, a Dental Assistant for over 22 years, or her husband, Chris, who has worked with Godbout Plumbing and Heating for over 30 years, have retired yet. But with the ongoing pandemic, the opportunity presented itself to open the Ice Cream Shop, and they both thought, "This is the time!"

They have been working on this project for about a year, and had originally planned a July 4 opening, but there were many delays, with permits from the state, inspection from the town, and general supplies. So even though it seems past ice cream season, they thought, "Why not get our feet wet opening now! We're ready!" said Janet.

The house that the shop is in is over 200 years old, a post and beam home that was moved here from Saco over 20 years ago. The house that had previously been

Help the Lions help the blind

On Saturday, Oct. 23 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. the Massabesic Lions Club will be participating in the annual White Cane Days. White Cane Awareness month is October and traditionally White Cane Day is Oct. 14 each year as declared by former President Lyndon Baines Johnson in 1964.

Your generous donations will be accepted at The Milk Room, Lakeside Market and JD's Package Store. Stop and chat with Massabesic Lions Club members about this project and why they are out raising funds to aid the visually impaired.

The White Cane was created in 1927 by a Lion named George Bonham of Peoria Illinois. Since then, it has become the symbol indicating that a person is blind. In addition, it is a tool of sight by feel for the blind. Today White Cane Laws are on the books in all 50 states, as well as many other countries. This provided the blind with legal status should they be involved in an accident. The White Cane, with its red band at the bottom, now universally acknowledges that the bearer is blind or visually impaired. It is with that in mind that Lions Clubs of Maine hold White Cane Days around the state, to help increase the awareness of the use of the White Cane. Lions help to educate the public about aspirations, hopes and abilities of people who are blind or visually impaired.

Money raised through White Cane Days goes to the Maine Lions Sight and Hearing Foundation to support its programs and services including eye exams, eyeglasses, hearing aids, vision screening for students and white cane awareness for Mainers.

To find out more about Maine Lions Sight & Hearing Foundation, visit at www.mainelions.org.

To find out more about what Massabesic Lions do, we invite you to attend, as our guest, one of our dinner meetings every 4th Thursday of the month at 7 p.m. at 813 Main Street, Waterboro.

Kennebunk Savings' Spotlight Fund grants $20,000 to York County childcare programs

Kennebunk Savings is issuing a $20,000 Spotlight Fund grant to York County Community Action Corporation. The grant will support assessing and researching solutions to the childcare availability gaps in York County – with a pilot program set to launch in May 2022 to increase access to quality childcare for working families.

The bank's Spotlight Fund is an integral part of their annual giving program. Each year, their team proactively researches and identifies a pressing issue affecting our local communities. They meet with leaders in the field to understand how a long-term investment can create opportunities that will lead to lasting, positive change.

"Adequate childcare is out of reach for many families in our communities," said Bradford C. Paige, President and CEO of Kennebunk Savings. "This is an issue of affordability, but it's also about making sure the workforce has the support they need. Not to mention that it's all been exacerbated by a global pandemic. And this absence of available care creates stresses on young families at a critical stage in their children's development."

"Over 30 childcare programs in York County permanently closed during the pandemic," said Barbara Crider, Executive Director at YCCAC. "High quality and affordable childcare was already in short supply." YCCAC is well-positioned to begin filling this gap – with years of experience working with children and families and a broad range of resources and services to connect them with WIC, transportation, heating assistance, home repair and more.

Families with access to childcare can pursue education and employment opportunities, which lead to economic opportunities. With better access to childcare, employers can count on a reliable workforce. In one survey, employers reported that access to childcare services decreased employee absences by 20% - 30% and reduced turnover by 37% - 60%. With professional supervision in a daycare setting, young children can begin to develop the social skills and independence necessary to thrive in schools.

In 2021, Kennebunk Savings has committed a total investment of $150,000 in Spotlight Fund grants focused on early childhood development. Grants are targeting programs that advance the accessibility, affordability and quality of early childhood services and resources in York County, Maine and seacoast New Hampshire. The first round of grants is focused on capacity expansion and quality improvement of childcare and educational programs for pre-K kids, parents and teachers.

York County Community Action Corporation was incorporated in 1965 in response to the Economic Opportunity Act of 1964. Since then, York County communities have counted on YCCAC to provide opportunity and hope to people from all circumstances, particularly in times of transition or adversity. Will Hygh, VP Commercial Credit Portfolio Manager at the Kennebunk Savings, is a member of the YCCAC Board of Directors. "The effects of poverty can have severe negative consequences on someone's quality of life and this is especially profound in children," Hygh said. "YCCAC tackles poverty on multiple fronts. I strongly support its mission."

Scott St. Laurent is a resident of Lyman who has a unique hobby. For the past 6 years he has been growing giant pumpkins and completing with them for the past 4 years. This growing year was another year filled with highs and lows. The season started out great with a total of 6 plants, 4 pumpkins and 2 squash. The warm spring allowed him to put the baby plants in the ground earlier than he had in past years and hoped to break his personal best of 1,487 pounds.

As the season went on and baby pumpkins and squash were set on each plant, things took a turn for the worst. Pests and disease killed 5 of his 6 plants leaving Scott with one giant pumpkin plant with only one pumpkin. July and August were one of the wettest in Maine history causing worry that the plant would develop rot with so much moisture.

Oct. 3 finally came, and it was time for Scott to take his one remaining giant pumpkin to Damariscotta, for the Giant Pumpkin Growers (GPC) weigh-off. Scott kept hoping his pumpkin would weigh at least 1,500 lbs. and beat his personal best. The measurements were done by the professionals who told Scott he had a good chance of breaking that record. According to the measurements, his pumpkin should have weighed around 1,600 lbs, as long as it didn't go too light on the scale, which could happen if the pumpkin walls are thinner than expected.

The pumpkin was lifted a placed on the scale with a crowd watching to see what this beauty weighed. When the scale was unveiled it showed a whopping 1,959 lbs., much to everyone's surprise, especially Scott. Not only had he beat his personal best, but Scott had also broken the record of the largest pumpkin ever to be weighed in Maine.

This pumpkin did not go light at the scales, in fact it went very heavy. Scott enjoyed his moment in speechless surprise being congratulated by all. Next on the scale was a pumpkin just a little bit bigger though, Mr. Edwin Pierpont, of Jefferson, had a pumpkin that weighed in at 2,121.5 breaking the Maine giant pumpkin record again and giving Maine it's first ever pumpkin over 2,000 lbs.

Mustangs wrap reg season 12-2

Duffy 4 assists leads on senior night

By MICHAEL DEANGELIS
Sports Editor

Senior Mary Duffy had four assists and classmates Micaela Jacobs and Emily Jacobs added three goals to help lift Masabesic to an easy 6-0 blanking of Portland/Deering in varsity girls' field hockey on a chilly Tuesday, Oct. 19. With senior night festivities behind them, Micaela Jacobs quickly gave the large home crowd something to cheer about when she banged home the first goal of the game just 47 seconds in. She added another seven minutes later (Duffy's first assist) and the Mustangs were off and running. Lexi Dyer had a pair of goals and Lydia Desrochers scored her first varsity goal. Lydia Suhy made four saves for her second consecutive shutout and sixth this season.

The Mustangs trounced host Sanford one day prior on Monday, Oct. 18. The Jacobs twins each scored twice with Mary Duffy and Caitlynn McAllister each adding one goal.

Massabesic was handed just its second loss of the season, when undefeated Cheverus knocked in the decisive goal with zero time left in regulation on Oct. 14. The Mustangs trailed 1-0 when Lexi Dyer evened it with an assist from Mary Duffy. That goal closed the scoring in the first half. Taylor Tory put Cheverus (14-0) back ahead early in the third, but the battling Mustangs again tied it when Emily Jacobs ripped home a goal from the top of the circle six minutes later. Cheverus was awarded a corner as time expired in regulation and the Mustangs defense, huge all night with Bri Stephenson, Kate Boissonneault and Lydia Desrochers superb in front of goalkeeper Lydia Suhy, thwarted the attempt, sending the game into...overtime. Not so fast, as a second corner was awarded due to a defensive infraction and the follow-up chance allowed Lucy Johnson to bang home the game winner and keep Cheverus undefeated. Cheverus hadn't allowed more than one goal in a game since Sept. 8 when the Tigers fell to them 6-2. They notched ten shutouts and allowed just six goals on the season.

Massabesic notched six shutouts during the regular season, outscoring opponents 48-14 over their 14-game regular season schedule. They were scheduled to host a second round playoff game on Friday, Oct. 22.

Rams outrun Mustangs

Newton sparks home crowd late

Kennebunk ran up a 28-0 first quarter advantage—behind three touchdowns from Matt Moore—and they cruised to a 47-7 win over host Massabesic (1-6) on a lovely Friday evening Oct. 15.

The lone bright spot came late in the fourth when the Mustangs' broke the huddle near the Rams' goal line, looking to get on the scoreboard. They handed the ball off to their senior lineman and captain Dana Newton, who punched it into the end zone for the score, igniting the crowd.

Massabesic will visit Biddford (1-6) on Friday, Oct. 22 for their final game of the season.

CROSS COUNTRY

Junior Mustangs take XC meet

Hayden Hludik was first with a 9:56, but Massabesic placed three runners in the top 10 to help lift them to a tight win at a five team junior high school cross-country meet held on a warm Friday, Oct. 15 on Massabesic's "Valley" course. Mustangs Skylar Blair, Abigail Gilley and Brigham McCann grouped up, ran well and placed 5th, 6th and 7th respectively. Massabesic had Kennadi Graffam finish in 17th and Shayla Fecteau 19th to give them just 54 team points. Wells was next with 62 and Marshwood was third at 65. Noble had 75 points and Thornton Academy finished with 90. Blair crossed in 10:33.90, one of only seven runners (along with Gilley and McCann) to finish under the 11-minute mark and just 17 of the 49 who ran (Graffam being one) crossed in less than 13 minutes.

ICE CREAM SHOP

there had burned down. This house is the Guay family home. The Guay family offered it to the Quilty's for $2, and Janet's husband Chris Quilty moved it here, and has done a lot of work on the house since then. "It has a lot of character," said Janet.

This is a family business, and daughters Paige and Meghan work alongside their parents, as well as Meghan's fiancé, Jake Dare. Both Paige and Jake bring ice cream shop experience - Paige worked at another ice cream shop for about 2 1/2 years, and Jake worked in an ice cream shop in Connecticut through high school and college. It was actually Jake who came up with the name, Scoop on the Cape. "Lots of people have asked why 'on the Cape'?" said Paige. "You're not on the coast." But the name comes from the actual road where they are located... "Cape Road!"

The Quilty's farm is next door to the shop, so there is a Farm Animal Theme, and décor. A couple of examples of the farm theme from the Ice Cream Menu are The Cow Pattie (a hot fudge brownie sundae) and Pig in a Bow (a strawberry shortcake sundae). The ice cream comes from Blake's Creamery in Manchester, New Hampshire. "I wanted to do something different," Janet said. The fall flavor Pumpkin is on the menu, as well as some unusual flavors, such as Boston Blackout, Peanut Butter 180, and Dinosaur Crunch. You'll have to stop by to check out the menu and find out what they are all about.

"We really wanted to make it affordable for families to come and enjoy an ice cream," said Janet. "It's wonderful!" said Sue Bonior from Limington, one of the first customers at the shop when they opened on Saturday, October 16. Bonoir had the seasonal flavor, Pumpkin. "I had pumpkin somewhere else, but the flavor was not as strong as this one," she said. "And this is very rich." Don Bonoir tried the Mint Explosion. "We already have more flavors picked out for next time!"

On Sunday, the Gammon brothers Sam, 5, and Phillip, 3, ice cream connoisseurs according to their mother, Mindy, stopped by with their mom for an ice cream.

"I usually get cotton candy," said Sam, "but I had to try something different." He got Dinosaur Crunch. Phillip stuck to the traditional vanilla. (See related photo on Page 1.) Mindy had the Peanut Butter 180. "It's pretty good!" she said. "It has a lot more flavor than I thought!"

Scoop on the Cape is located at 558 Cape Road, and will be open weekends, Friday from 2 to 8 p.m.,

Saturday and Sunday from 12 to 8 p.m. They will stay open until the end of November, and will then have a Grand Opening in May of 2022. They have outside seating, a chalkboard corner for the kids to write on, and a floor size checkers board for kids of all ages to play.

"We just want to thank our wonderful friends who have helped us tremendously throughout these last months," said Janet.

Vote Yes on Question 1 to Ban CMP's Corridor

It's a Bad Deal for Maine

Nearly all the power goes to Massachusetts

Mainers get as little as 9 cents off their monthly bill

Maine's leading environmental groups oppose CMP's Corridor

The Facts About Question 1 & CMP's Corridor

80,000 Mainers put Question 1 on the ballot to ban CMP's Corridor.

It doesn't give politicians new power.

It's only retroactive to the time CMP signed an illegal lease in 2014.

Rep. Nate Wadsworth announces candidacy

Nate Wadsworth, a sixth generation Hiram resident and State Representative, is announcing he is running for the Maine State Senate. He will be running for the new Maine Senate District 22 seat which was formed as the result of redistricting. Wadsworth is currently serving in his fourth term in the Maine House of Representatives.

“For as many generations as the Wadsworths have been in Maine, they have been committed to serving our friends and neighbors both through our private business ventures and our public service efforts. In continuing that tradition in the Maine State Senate, my focus will be on strengthening our state so Mainers are able to thrive here and cherish the opportunity to live here,” said Wadsworth.

Senator David Woodsome also expressed his strong support for Rep. Wadsworth’s Senate candidacy. “I have worked closely with Nate for two terms on the Energy, Utilities and Technology Committee in Augusta. His calm and thoughtful approach makes him just the kind of leader we need in state government. His love of the state and willingness to work hard on behalf of his community will benefit all Mainers when he is serving in the State Senate.”

Rep. Wadsworth works in the family business, Wadsworth Woodlands, Inc., which has provided consulting forestry services to Southern Maine forestland owners for almost three decades. A 1998 graduate of Sacopec Valley High School, he earned a Bachelor of Science degree in Economics and Agricultural Business. Nate and his wife April have two children, Lillian and William.

Rep. Wadsworth’s Senate candidacy has been enthusiastically received by other elected officials in the district. He has already been endorsed by fellow Representatives Lester Ordway (R-Standish), Ted Kryzak (R-Acton), Rich Cebra (R-Naples) and Senator Rick Bennett (R-Oxford), as well as by the Hon. Jon Kinney who previously represented York County towns in the Maine House.

The newly established State Senate District 22 consists of the Cumberland County towns of Naples, Sebago, Standish and Baldwin; the Oxford County towns of Hiram and Porter; and the York County towns of Cornish, Limerick, Limington, Newfield, Parsonsfield, and Shapleigh.

Local shopping ‘elves’ needed

Christmas is coming and for the second year in a row Stacy Boston Jette is organizing ‘Christmas for Newfies.’ It is early, but with shortages and shipping issues, she felt that it was best to get a head start on the holiday. ‘Christmas for Newfies’ provides gifts to the children of families that are struggling. Jette is hoping to get 3 to 4 gifts per child and limit the price of gifts to $30 or under.

Contact Jette at the phone numbers below if you need help with Christmas gifts for your children. Recipients must be full time, year round residents of Newfield and West Newfield only. Confidentiality of the recipients is a priority! She insists that the Elves do not ask her who’s on the list of families.

At this time, Jette is looking for local people to step forward to help her out as Elves. Yes, she needs Santa’s helpers to get the gifts, and give them to her so that she can distribute them to the community. Once, the parents give their lists to the Elves, then the shopping begins.

According to Jette, last year there were donations of gift cards, gas cards, grocery cards, heating fuel gift certificates, cash to make food boxes for each family, wrapping paper, tape and bows. “All were wonderfully amazing and helped bring joy to Moms and Dads, as well,” she said. And, she has already been given a $150 cash donation to start it all off!

If you want to be an Elf this year, text Jette at (207) 432-6880, FB messenger her or leave a message on her home line (207) 793-4622. She will add Elves in order that she hears from individuals. This year, when she sends Elves the list, she needs a response within 24 hours, so she can move the list along to the next Elf in a timely manner.

And, finally, at this time, she has a Partner Elf to help her out, who will help with packing, sorting, lugging, delivering, has a giving Spirit, wants to spread Joy to others and can keep to the confidentiality clause. And, she has several others to stand by if more help is needed.

Two families have signed up so far to receive some Christmas Joy, and she is “Hoping to get more giving Elves on board” and more families to sign up, as well.

Jette would like to have everything purchased by Nov. 30 and out to the parents between Dec. 6-10. To make it easier, items can be delivered directly to her address, if ordered online. She says that it worked out well last year doing it that way. Other details can be worked out with her once the Elves sign up for the most important duty of the holiday season. Let’s all spread some cheer this season, and put some big smiles on the kids faces.

Christening of the USS Carl M. Levin at Bath Iron Works

On Oct. 2, U.S. Senators Susan Collins and Angus King participated in the christening ceremony for the USS Carl M. Levin (DDG-120) at Bath Iron Works.

“Today we christened the USS Carl M. Levin, the Navy’s newest Bath Iron Works built ship,” said Senator Collins. “Senator Carl Levin was a remarkable public servant, and to me, a cherished friend. I learned from him first as a Senate staffer, and then worked closely with him as an admiring Senate colleague. The men and women who sail aboard the USS Carl Levin will do so under an honored name. And wherever they sail, the prayers of a grateful nation will go with them.”

“The men and women of Bath Iron Works have once again built a state-of-the-art ship that will provide our nation’s sailors with the tools they need to accomplish their missions and keep America safe,” said Senator King. “It is fitting that this ship bears the name of the late Senator Carl Levin, who devoted so much of his life to strengthening our national defense, protecting American lives, and supporting our servicemembers. Carl was a mentor, a friend, and a model public servant – and I’m glad that his name will be carried on by a world-class BIW ship.”

The USS Carl M. Levin is named in honor of the late U.S. Senator Carl M. Levin of Michigan, the longtime Chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee. The warship is an Arleigh Burke-class Flight IIA guided missile destroyer. The ship’s newly commissioned seal includes a shield in the shape of the historic Senate gavel to symbolize Mr. Levin’s service as a Senator; six six-pointed stars to honor his 36 years in the Senate; and a Phrygian cap to convey his work to protect the Great Lakes and their many lighthouses along Michigan’s coastline.

Senators Collins and King hold seats on the Senate Defense Appropriations Subcommittee and the Senate Armed Services Committee, respectively.

Christopher James Arenburg

Christopher James Arenburg, of Waterboro, passed away unexpectedly at the age of 70 on Oct. 12, 2021. Chris was born in Salem, Massachusetts to Harold and Thelma (Waterhouse) Arenburg. He proudly served in the U.S. Navy and eventually went on to become a skilled CNC Machinist at GE and Pratt & Whitney. Most of his work was around the development of airplane engines and he served as a mentor to co-workers in the same profession. On Dec. 23, 1978 he married Joan Anita Marquis and raised his family in New England – New Hampshire, Massachusetts and eventually settling in Maine.

Christopher James Arenburg

Chris had a passion for being out on the water boating and fishing. He also had a strong desire to hone his woodworking skills since he had worked with machining in his profession. He was known for putting on the most spectacular fireworks display every 4th of July. He more recently tried his hand at cooking, hoping to match his wife's cooking skills. Sorry, Dad...you did good, but we all know that was an impossible task! He truly enjoyed all her amazing meals! He loved all things Mopar – muscle cars both old and new. He had also talked about taking more vacations in the Caribbean, especially after attending his daughter's wedding in Jamaica...he was hooked!

Chris was a remarkable storyteller and was proud to share the accomplishments of his children and grandchildren. He was most happy when he was spending time with his family – sharing stories, swimming in the pool with his grandkids, who affectionately named him "Bampy" and having family cookouts or gatherings. What brought him the most joy in life was making others happy.... always thinking of bringing his wife the random bouquet of flowers, picking up the grandkids' favorite treats at the store, and supporting everyone through every decision or hardship in life. He truly was a selfless, loving family man.

Chris is survived by his wife Joan, daughters Jennifer & Kristen, his mother Thelma, his son in laws Dan & Eli, his grandchildren, and several siblings.

Family & close friends – Please join us for a celebration of life at his daughter Jennifer's home at 29 Woodland Drive, Waterboro ME 04087 on Saturday, Oct. 23 from 1 to 5 p.m. Light snacks and refreshments will be provided. Please feel free to bring your choice of beverage to raise a toast to Chris "Bampy" Arenburg. We look forward to sharing laughs and stories!
